HE PACKED HIS TRUNK AND LEFT

Tried to Borrow a Gun to Shoot John Weaver—Scene on Street Corner.

Trouble between Ed. Abernathy and his wife, Mrs. Goldie Abernathy, yesterday evening, at their home on First street between Main and Morgan, led to a separation. Mr. Abernathy packed his trunk and went to the home of his father at Homer.

When seen Mr. Abernathy stated that he went about 10:50 last night going to the front door of the house. He says that he heard a noise inside and heard the side door next to the alley slam. He stepped into the alley and saw John Weaver run out of the house. He says he took after Weaver and ran him into the open space in the rear of Denny Ryan's saloon, where he says Weaver drove him off at the point of a revolver. Abernathy then went around to the front of George Mallory's saloon, where he tried to borrow a revolver for the purpose of shooting Weaver. Weaver followed him to the mouth of the alley on Second street and turned west going past the Windsor hotel. Abernathy was unable to secure a revolver and did not follow Weaver. Abernathy charges that Weaver has been keeping company with his wife for over a year.

Mr. Weaver states that he arrived in this city Monday night about ten o'clock from Franklin, where he has been since last October, when he separated from his wife. He says his trunk, which contained his revolver, was in the I. & C. depot until this morning. He denies drawing a gun on Abernathy and states that he had none on his person. He says he went to the ball game last night and after it was over he was passing up the alley in company with another party when he was called to the side door of the Abernathy home by Mrs. Abernathy. This was about 9:40 p. m. Mrs. Abernathy asked him to step inside the door as she had something to tell him, and he did so. Weaver says that Mrs. Abernathy told him that her husband had returned home that afternoon in an intoxicated condition and informed her "that John Weaver was back here and that she thought more of him than she did of him (Abernathy), and he guessed he would leave."

Whereupon Weaver says Abernathy packed his trunk and went to his father's at Homer. Weaver says Mrs. Abernathy told him that her husband intended to kill him and that she begged him not to get into any trouble. Weaver says that he did not want any trouble with Abernathy and decided to leave the house at once. He said he did not go further than the door and that he did not stop longer than ten minutes. He says Abernathy came around the house just as he came out and that he thought that Abernathy meant to kill him and he started to run.

He says that he stayed with Abernathy until he tried to borrow a gun and then he left going by a roundabout way to the A. A. M. on Taylor street, where he went to bed in a room over the office. He had engaged a room at Mrs. Hufford's boarding house, but it seems that he did not go there. Weaver says Abernathy was the cause of him and his wife separating last fall, inasmuch as he told Mrs. Weaver that her husband was furnishing his (Abernathy's) wife with money. Weaver denies this and also that he kept company with Mrs. Abernathy. He says that he came back to Rushville twice while he was at Franklin and that he returned immediately.

Mrs. Abernathy says that she called Weaver to the door about nine o'clock and that he was not there over a minute.

This morning Abernathy and his wife met on a down town street corner and quarreled over the possession of their little son. Mrs. Abernathy snatched up the boy and started to carry him away, but the youngster kicked her and objected strenuously to going with her. Attorneys for both sides interfered and it was finally agreed that the lad should go with his father. Mrs. Abernathy is said to have remarked to her husband on the street this morning that she cared more for Weaver anyhow than she did for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Abernathy came to this city from Homer about eighteen months ago. Mrs. Abernathy was formerly Miss Goldie Smith, of Homer. Her parents moved there from Kentucky. Abernathy is at present employed at George Mallory's saloon. Mrs. Abernathy charges that her husband gave beer to their little son who is hardly over three years old, and that he sold beer in his own home.

It is understood that an affidavit will be filed against Abernathy for selling liquor without a license. Mrs. Abernathy will probably be the one to apply for divorce.

LAUREL STONE CO. TO RESUME

Railroad to Quarries Repaired and Preliminary Trip With Engine Made Over Track.

For about eighteen months the Laurel Stone Quarries have been idle. These are the quarries at Derbyshire Falls, where the stone is a fine quality, varied in thickness and inexhaustible in quantity. This enterprise has had a checkered history. The company owns the only line of railway penetrating the rock-ribbed hills, southwest of Laurel, where good stone everywhere abounds, all others operating quarries hauling their product to Laurel by wagon. The line of road was built to the Falls, three and one-eighth mile in length, in 1898. The original company seemingly did a large business and employed a large force of men at good wages, in cash, instead of the old truck-and-trade order methods that prevailed. But trouble and strife and considerable loss of money resulted to the original investors and the quarries shut down and remained so for about a year and a half. Then J. B. Pusey, who, with his brothers, was a large investor, and Edgar O'Hair, of Brookville, bid in the plant at receiver's sale. It was run under a different management with indifferent success until November, 1903, when it was shut down and has remained idle ever since.

Messrs. Pusey and O'Hair are now about to set the wheels going again. Undoubtedly the quarry is a valuable one and in the opinion of the best judges want of sufficient operating capital to put the enterprise fairly on its feet, is the sole cause of the bad luck that has heretofore attended it.

INLOW DAMAGE CASE ON TRIAL

Jury is Impanelled and Introduction of Testimony is Begun.

The case of W. E. Inlow vs. the P. C. C. & St. L. Railroad Co. for $5000 damages for the injury of some horses which the plaintiff shipped over the Pennsylvania road some time ago, came up for trial in the circuit court this morning. The jury was impanelled and the introduction of evidence was begun. The case is being tried before special Judge John L. Rupe, of Richmond. It will probably last until tomorrow evening. The jury trying the case is composed of the following named men: Peter Johnson, D. E. Barnard, William Leisner, Wesley Miller, Charles Kenner, John Boles, William Crane, N. M. Brown, Ed. Buscher, Ed. Young, Wier Cassidy and Dan Kinney.

A certain professor says the real 4th of July is August 18th, because the Declaration was signed on that date.

"CASSIDY" IS A COCAINE FIEND

Many Checks on Indiana Banks Were Found in His Pockets.

In further commenting on the arrest of "James Cassidy," who was arrested at Hamilton, O., Monday, and who gave his address as Rushville, Ind., the Hamilton Republican News of Tuesday says: "The police are of the theory that James Cassidy, whose real estate deals were mentioned in yesterday's Republican News told fairy tales of his fabulous Indiana accounts. Cassidy says, however, that there will be $1000 in money today to his credit in the Second National Bank and that he was in earnest in his real estate ventures on paper with James Fitton and W. W. Vinnebeck.

"The Bertillon measurement taken by Mayor's clerk, Frank Clements, shows Cassidy 5.5 feet tall, aged 38, hazel eyes, light brown hair, short light colored mustache and weighing 132 pounds. He says his home is near Rensselaer, Ind., where his mother has a farm of 640 acres of finely cultivated land. Cassidy claims to have been married for 18 years and says he has one child; he expects his wife here today from her home in Lafayette, Ind.

"Cassidy when searched at the police station last night had a bundle of checks in his coat pocket ranging in amount from $1000 to $55, all on the Lafayette, Indiana, Bank.

"Nicholas Ludwig, of Seventh and Walnut streets, with whom Cassidy boarded, was given a check on the Second National Bank in this city for $4.50 and the failure to be honored at the bank with the subsequent investigations led to patrolman McMahon bringing the fellow to police station yesterday, where if he can substantiate his financial ventures, he will be released from custody.

"He told Chief of Police Sipp yesterday that he was a cement contractor and had been working on a job in Lindenwald, when the officer requested him to drop work and call at headquarters. Word is being expected today from Indiana that will probably shed some light on the Hoosier's business qualifications.

"Cassidy, the man with a pocketful of checks, this morning completely changed his name, address, and in the language of dope students, woke up. He admitted that his right name is Charles Hole and that this home is in Battle Creek, Mich. He said he had been "sniffing cocaine for the past three weeks, barely remembered the names of some towns in Indiana he visited recently and acknowledged he was dreaming when he started negotiations to buy Hamilton. Holes says his relatives live in Battle Creek, and that he had a cousin, John Holes, who was a transfer man in that city. A telegram from Battle Creek says that Holes is known there and that John Holes claims to be an heir to the Irish estate of Lord Byron. What will be done with Holes is still uncertain."

Fine Presence of Mind.
Shelbyville, Ind., May 24.—Robert Stewart, who has a room on the second floor of the Dorsey block, lighted a coal oil stove and temporarily left the room. Thomas Anders, proprietor of a restaurant on the first floor, heard a peculiar noise, and, going to Stewart's room, he found the stove wrapped in flames. He threw a quilt over the flaming mass and tossed the stove out of the window, thereby preventing what might have been a disastrous fire.

Surprised the Undertaker.
Evansville, Ind., May 24.—Michael Hertz, an aged German, was taken suddenly ill and apparently was dead for an hour. The coroner and an undertaker were called and Hertz's sons began preparing for the funeral. As the undertaker bent over the supposed corpse the old man suddenly came to life and asked for a glass of beer and a bowl of soup. He is now fully convalescent.

HINSHAW PREACHED

The Ex-Convict Minister Occupied Friends Pulpit at Centerville Sunday.

"Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal; the Lord knoweth them that are His. And let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."—II Timothy, ii, 19.

Such was the text selected by William E. Hinshaw for his sermon preached Sunday morning in the Friends church at Centerville, Wayne county—the first sermon delivered by him outside of prison walls since his conviction for the life of his wife ten years ago. An audience that filled the church listened to the discourse. Some were there through curiosity alone, many were devout Quakers and still others were intimate acquaintances and relatives of the man whose release from prison came as a result of the pardoning power of Governor Durbin on the last day of that executive's term of office.

SPECIAL EXERCISES AT HIGH SCHOOL

Fitting Observance of the Last Regular Day of School—Examinations Today.

Special exercises were held at the high school yesterday afternoon, it being the last regular day of this school term. Quite a number of visitors were present, and pronounced the entertainment splendid. During this year the high school has been fortunate in having a large number of talented students, who with the able assistance of Miss Spurrier, supervisor of music in the schools, have rendered some excellent programs at different times during the year. The program which was given yesterday afternoon follows:

Song, High school.
Selection, Glee club.
Piano solo, Ethel Stephens.
Vocal solo, Miss Abbott.
Piano solo, Ethel Blackledge.
Vocal duet, Florence Frazee and Orna Innis.
Song, High school.
Vocal solo, Mattie Hogsett.
Selection, Girl's Chorus.
Vocal solo, Mary Louise Bliss.
Piano solo, Florence Frazee.
Selection, Glee club.
Song, High school.

In the above outline of the selections there is one mistake which we are unable to remedy, because we failed to find out just when it was during the program that Lawrence Geraghty arose and made the motion for Miss Mattie Hogsett to play the popular rag-time selection, "Yankee Land," with which request she kindly complied. The reader will notice by the program that the high school was assisted by Miss Mary Louise Bliss, who sang a very pretty solo and was admirably accompanied at the piano by Miss Norma Smith. There was a hearty applause in their honor.

A decided contrast may be drawn between yesterday's afternoon's enjoyment at the high school and that of today. Those unfortunate students, who bolted recitations and enjoyed life generally during the last term, are making up for it now. The examinations were held all day today, and will be continued through tomorrow.

PYTHIAN ASSEMBLY

Indianapolis, May 24.—The sixth biennial convention of the supreme assembly of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, will be held in this city for two days of this week, beginning Thursday morning. The supreme assembly, which is the highest legislative body of the military branch of Pythianism, is composed of the brigades into which the national organization is divided, a brigade for a state. There are twenty-six of these brigades, representing twenty-six states of the Union, and a constituency of about 50,000 members of the Uniform Rank.

THE INDIANS ARE SCALPED

Rushville Team Wins Both Games From the Cherokee Aggregation.

Locals Bunch Hits on Warhoop in Afternoon Game—Big Crowd at Night Game.

Before a crowd of about four hundred enthusiastic lovers of base ball, yesterday afternoon, Rushville won what was intended to be a game of ball, but what turned out to be a walk-away for the locals. The famous Cherokee Indians were scalped and taken into camp to the tune of 14 to 4. Worhop, the visitors' pitcher, was unable to stop the terrible onslaught made upon his curves by the Rushville batsmen. The team behind him, although it played errorless ball, lacked ginger for the reason that the men were overworked. Two games daily is very hard on a team.

There were few exciting plays in the game and the playing was slow and ragged. About the only feature was the hitting of Rushville. Wagner secured four hits out of five times up. Three of these were two base hits. Bush got three out of five times up; Taylor four out of five up and McCord, three out of four up. Kiser got two out of four times up. The local players showed plainly that they can hit and that they are improving fast. Rushville's runs were secured on hits bunched and coupled with battery errors. Tanner, the visiting catcher, split a finger in the first inning and was forced to retire. Charles Stiers and Willie McGuire of the high school team, were tried out and showed up well.

NIGHT GAME.

Rushville people were treated to a novelty in the way of a night game and about 900 people were present to witness the contest. The field was brilliantly illuminated by fifty gas lamps suspended from a frame work erected over the diamond. The balls and bats used were of the kind used in indoor base ball, the ball being of rubber somewhat larger than the regulation base ball and the bats being about two and one-half feet long and about two inches in diameter. Rushville beat the Indians at their own game by a score of 7 to 3. The feature of the game was Wagner's catch of long hit to center field. The two teams lined up during the night game as follows:

NO OIL WAS DISCOVERED

First Two Wells Sunk by Pittsburgh Oil Company in Decatur County are Dry Holes.

The first two wells put down by the Pittsburgh Oil Company in Decatur county in search of oil, have been disappointments. The wells, which were sunk on the Meyers farm, near New Pennington, and on the Draping farm, near Slabtown, were shot Monday afternoon. No signs of oil were found in either of these wells and but little gas was found in the New Pennington well. The well on the Draping farm is producing a small flow of gas.

While those holes were giving disappointing results, it is understood that the work of sinking a number of other wells will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Among the other wells which are being put down are those on farms owned by Myron O. Jenkins and Curtis McCoy.

RAILROADS MUST MAINTAIN THEM

Supreme Court Says an Interlocking Device Must be at Every Crossing.

Indianapolis, May 24.—The supreme court holds that the act of 1903 authorizing interurban railroads to cross steam railroads at grade makes it the imperative duty of the crossing railroad to put in an interlocking device within six months under penalty of forfeiting all right to continue the use of the crossing without one.

A temporary injunction forbidding the Monon railroads to tear out the tracks of the Indianapolis & Northwestern Traction company where they cross its road near Frankfort was reversed, with directions to sustain a motion dissolving the injunction.

The court refused to decide whether or not the provision of the law that the interlocking crossing meet the approval of the state auditor is constitutional, saying that the time when such a crossing is built, which the state auditor refuses to approve, will be the time to decide the effect of his disapproval.

A Lesson to the Youth.

Chicago, May 24.—Judge Mack has sentenced seventeen schoolboys for taking part in the strikes at public school buildings. Thirteen of the boys were sent to the parental school, while the other four were remanded to the institution for boys at St. Charles.

Togo's Waiting Game.

London, May 24.—It is learned from a trustworthy source that Vice Admiral Togo's fleet is still off Masampho on the southeastern coast of Korea.

Sheep thrive best on land which is infested with moles, because the soil is then better drained.

The census of the Indians of Canada last year showed there were in all 107,978, as compared with 108,233 in 1903, a decrease of 255.

THE NEW LAW IS APPLIED

At Elkhart Three Citizens are Locked Up Despite Their Frantic Efforts.

Rigid Interpretation of New Law Sounds the Knell of Gambling in Indiana.

Goshen, Ind., May 24.—When three men were arrested in a resort at Elkhart, pleaded guilty without knowing the penalty, were sent to jail for ten days, in spite of offers to pay heavy fines, the people of northern Indiana obtained their first intimate knowledge of the new law that sends frequenters of gambling rooms and other resorts to jail in spite of all they can do.

The three men arrested in this instance were prominent in many ways. One is a political leader and has had high honors from his lodge. Another was to have married in a few days. They all gave assumed names. When the newspapers of northern Indiana, themselves surprised at the severity of the new law, told of the punishment of these three men, it began to look like there would have to be a receivership for every gambling house in northern Indiana. Some of the resorts just folded up their tents and marched away.

It had been a habit in many places for a gambling house keeper to guarantee protection to his patron, and for many years there has not been a single case of a visitor to a gambling room being required to pay the expense of his arrest. The proprietor "fixed" it all. But the worst blow fell from Judge Dodge in the circuit court here. When the grand jurors came before him for instructions, he advised them to indict every man who owned a building where gambling is carried on.

THINGS HUM FOR SQUIRE JACKSON

Several Cases Came Up in His Court This Morning but Were Continued.

In Squire Jackson's court today three cases against Harvey, Byron and Lesta Toler, for trespass, preferred by James F. Gosnell, William F. Gosnell and John Jamison, were continued until June 5th for the reason that neither of the parties were ready for trial.

A case charging forcible detention and preferred by James F. Gosnell against Rachel, Byron Lesta, and Harvey Toler and demanding $300 damages was also continued, as was the case of the State of Indiana vs. Harvey Toler for drawing a deadly weapon, and the State of Indiana vs. James F. Gosnell for profanity.

It seems that the Tolers have been occupying land owned by the men making the charges and that they refused to vacate. Considerable trouble has occurred between the men concerned and serious fights have been narrowly averted. All of the cases will be heard on June 5th.

Charles McGibbons was brought into Squire Jackson's court this morning and fined $10.20 for being drunk. The fine was paid.

GOOD BLOOD

Bad Complexions Due to Catarrh and Catarrh Can Be Cured Only By Rezall Mucu-Tone—Cosmetics Prove Worthless

Thousands of women are using toilet preparations unsuccessfully. Cosmetics fail to improve their thick, muddy complexions or to banish the pimples, blackheads and crow's-feet.

No wonder. Their trouble lies far deeper than the skin. They have bad blood, and bad blood in 90 per cent. of the cases arises from inflammation of the mucous membrane. Their blood is filled with poison which is certain to break out in unsightly humors and blotches,—while pale, drawn faces, deep circled eyes, stooping shoulders and weak backs complete the story of suffering and despair.

Inflammation of the mucous membrane is catarrh. Banish catarrh and complexions will clear as if by magic, pain vanish, eyes will brighten, faces become plump and shoulders erect. Perfect beauty goes only with perfect health, and perfect health for women can only be obtained through Rezall Mucu-Tone, the one positive and permanent cure for catarrh.

Mme. Swift, the most famous beauty specialist in the world and an accepted authority on all relating thereto, has this to say of Mucu-Tone:

"I can strongly endorse the claims made for Rezall Mucu-Tone as a cure for systemic catarrh. Its tonic effects are remarkable. It builds up the strength and restores the vitality. If women who are tired and run down, lacking in energy and vitality, will use Mucu-Tone they will praise it as I do for its strengthening and healing qualities."

Mrs. H. Swift

44 W. 26th St., New York City.

Rezall Mucu-Tone works through the blood, and acting directly upon the mucous cells—the congestion and inflammation of which are the sole cause of catarrh—causes them to expel the poison and to resume their natural functions. Thus the membranes are cleansed—the blood purified and revitalized.

We know that Rezall Mucu-Tone will cure every form of catarrh, no matter where located, of how long standing, or by what other names it is known. We guarantee to refund your money if you are not satisfied with the vigorous health and clear complexion it brings you.

David Bennet Hill, Alton Brooks Parker and Henry Gassaway Davis are reported to be leading the simple life.

Since the output of gold is getting so great, there is some alarm for fear money will get too cheap and plentiful. It may yet be necessary to have to change the standard to radium which continues scarce and high.

The plague in India has proven worse than war. There are recorded 58,895 deaths in a single week. Sanitation is almost impossible in a country where an ancient religious belief forbids the extermination of all animal life, even the rats, which are the great conveyors of the plague.

A famous physician upon being asked recently what was the chief cause of ill health, replied: "Thinking and talking about it all the time. This ceaseless introspection in which so many of the rising generation of nervous folks indulge is certainly wearing them out. When they are not worrying as to whether they sleep too much or too little, they are fretting over the amount of food they take or quantity of exercise necessary for health. In short they never give themselves a moment's peace."

When President Roosevelt announced just after the last national election that he would not again be a candidate for the presidency, most persons had reason to take him at his word. Yet on the recent trip in various States he was annoyed by suggestions of a third term time and again, regardless of the fact that every such suggestion was an imputation which any full-grown man could not but inwardly resent. With this in mind it is announced from Washington that the President will make a trip South next fall because he has already promised to do so, and after that he will make no extended journeys until the end of his present term. The purpose is to discountenance these suggestions which, if they are to be regarded seriously, are nothing more or less than insults, though, of course, they are not so intended.

THE CRUSADE GROWING

Temperance Advocates Find the Situation Encouraging.

Indianapolis, May 24.—More encouraging reports for the temperance advocates received today at the headquarters of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League indicate that the crusade it is conducting is growing broader. All of Grant county outside of Marion may become "dry" within the next few weeks. This is one of the largest counties in the state. A remonstrance has been obtained in VanBuren township, driving out all saloons for two years. In Fairmount township a blanket remonstrance will be presented June 1, and in Sims township in which Swayzee, Heibst and Sims are located, a blanket remonstrance is ready. An attempt will be made to close the saloons in Marion, but it is located in three townships and the work will be difficult. A bitter fight is on between the "wet" and the "dry" element at Redkey. An effort is being made to obtain a remonstrance against all applicants. At Elkhart a fight is in progress. Twenty-one local saloon men have written a Milwaukee brewer urging it not to attempt to get an order license for its place, lest all applicants are defeated.

Governor Hanly has appointed Alexander Gilchrist of Evansville to succeed Congressman-elect John H. Foster as superior court judge of Vanderburgh county. Gilchrist was not a candidate and doubtless was greatly surprised on receipt of a telegram from the governor tendering him the position. It is presumed that he will accept. The election of Foster to congress vacated his place on the bench. So Gilchrist's term will begin at once and continue until the last of December, 1906. The appointment may not be pleasant to politicians at Evansville, as they were divided largely between Albert Funkhouser and W. A. Wheeler, avowed candidates, but Governor Hanly knew Gilchrist personally and offered the position to him.

The commission appointed by the governor to locate the southeastern Indiana hospital or the insane is now en tour. Yesterday it visited Columbus and today it stopped at Seymour. Tomorrow it is scheduled for North Vernon. The first week of June it will visit Bedford, New Albany and Madison, which have offered sites. It is noteworthy that no attempt was made at Columbus to kill the fatted calf for the governor and his associates, as he warned them ahead of their coming that they would be out for a business trip and that they would settle their own bills. It is expected that the location will be selected before the first of July.

Former Governor W. T. Durbin and wife left last night for New York. They sail from there Saturday for London. They will tour England and Ireland and then cross to the continent. They will visit the Gowdys in Paris. Concerning recent gossip that he is going abroad to further a large business proposition, Colonel Durbin said that the trip is solely for pleasure. He declined to talk of his plans in business or politics before his return. He said he thought that he and Mrs. Durbin would be in Indiana by the first of September next.

Senator Hemenway and family are en route home from Washington. Thursday the senator and daughter will join the congressional party in Chicago, bound for the Portland exposition. The senator expects Representative Watson to accompany him on the trip. Senator Hemenway will go to Alaska before he returns to Indiana. Vice President Fairbanks and wife will leave for Portland Saturday.

Masonic Home Plans.

Indianapolis, May 24.—It seems probable that some definite action toward a Masons' widows' and orphans' home in Indiana will be taken at the present meeting of the grand lodge of Indiana Masons. A temporary committee was appointed to consider the advisability of making a move in that direction, and it is probable that its report will be followed by the appointment of a permanent committee, probably with instructions to recommend a plan of action to the next grand lodge.

Fatal Runaway Accident.

Princeton, Ind., May 24.—Mrs. Sherman Turpin, wife of a well-known farmer near this city, was fatally injured in a runaway accident. The mother of Mrs. Turpin was seriously injured, but an infant daughter escaped without a scratch. A kitchen horse which the women were driving took fright and dashed against a fence, throwing the occupants to the ground.

Service Was Resisted.

Springfield, Ill., May 24.—In a battle between W. W. Paul and his sons, Wilford and Albert, on one side and three deputy sheriffs on the other, near Waverly, about twenty miles southwest of this city, last night, W. W. Paul and Wilford Paul were killed while resisting service of a writ of replevin.

PEACE TALK ENDS

All Chance of Early Settlement of Chicago Strike Has Vanished.

THE BATTLE IS NOW ON

With Refusal of Express Companies Grant Strikers' Demands Peace Conferences Break Up.

Strike Will Now Inevitably Spread And Troops Will Be Called Out.

Chicago, May 24.—All prospects of peace in the teamsters' strike have disappeared, and it will be open warfare from this time on. The last conference looking toward a peaceable adjustment was held at 6 o'clock last night between James B. Barry, business agent of the Express Drivers' union, and the local managers of the seven express companies. Business Agent Barry opened the negotiations by saying: "Our position is this: I want all the men reinstated except those who have been guilty of violence. I cannot do anything different. That is what the local union wants and that is what the local officers have told me to demand. That is all I can do. The men told me that they all want to go back in a body or they won't go back at all. That is the position of the union and the union officials."

The reply of the representative of the express companies was brief. It was: "Our opposition to the reinstatement of the men will be the same four years from now as it is today. We will not take them back under any circumstances." This brought the conference to a close and all parties concerned in it immediately left the city hall. A meeting of the United Employers' association of wood industries, which is composed of five associations embracing 135 firms owning lumber yards, planing mills, sash and door factories, etc., was held and it was decided to call upon their drivers to make deliveries. This will force out more than 2,000 men. Edward Hines, president of the association of wood industries, said that the members of the organization proposed to stand together, and when asked if peace was in sight, said: "Peace? I am not looking for peace. I am in this thing now to fight it out. We may just as well have it out once for all. The Employers' Association of Wood Industries is affiliated with the Chicago Employers' association, which has been fighting the strike thus far, and of course we will work in conjunction with them."

With the union drivers employed by the lumbermen's association on strike, it will be only a matter of a short time until outside unions will become involved in the trouble. Just as soon as the building material on hand now has been used up and an attempt is made to make deliveries with non-union drivers, the other labor unions employed on the work will order their men to refuse to handle non-union material. Unless the strike is settled within a short time the carpenters, stonemasons and other affiliated organizations are bound to become involved in the difficulty.

The possibilities for increased rioting are vastly enlarged by the spread of the strike to the lumber district. The territory which generally goes under this designation extends along the river from east to west about three and a half miles and for probably a mile to the north and south of the stream. It is a district noted for the fierce mobs which have marched through it during former strikes, and is the place which has invariably caused more trouble than any other point of the city. The city officials and Sheriff Barrett feel well-nigh hopeless of being able to maintain order in the lumber district, and at the same time protect wagons in the downtown streets as they have been doing thus far in the strike. It would require a force of at least 2,000 men to effectually patrol the lumber district alone, and this number the city and county have not to spare. It has therefore been determined that at the first outbreak of rioting such as marked the strike ten days ago, a call will be made on Governor Deneen for military assistance. The troops which will be first ordered out if the necessity arises compose the First brigade of the Illinois national guard, commanded by Brigadier General Moulton. It comprises the First, Second, Seventh and Eighth regiments of infantry, the last being a colored regiment, and the First regiment of cavalry—in all about 4,000 men.

Every preparation has been made for a prompt response by the national guard, and a large consignment of rifle cartridges has been received. These differ from the ordinary rifle bullet in that they contain three buckshot each in place of the single steel bullet.

Kentucky Family Tragedy.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., May 24.—In a family quarrel at Hendricks, Magoffin county, Dora Arnett shot and fatally wounded her husband, Dudley Arnett, with a revolver. Arnett, it is said, had beaten his wife and was trying to take the revolver from her when she fired. The Arnetts are prominent in eastern Kentucky. The woman was placed in jail. Arnett will die.

DIDN'T MINCE WORDS

Governor Higgins Vetoes an Astonishing Bill.

Albany, N. Y., May 24.—A bill introduced to legitimize a child born out of wedlock, which caused considerable comment but little opposition in its passage through the legislature, was vetoed by Governor Higgins. The measure is entitled "An act for the relief of Adelia Queenie Barker," and recites that she is the illegitimate offspring of Charles Bell Barker and Adelia Gertrude Stringer. Governor Higgins characterized the bill as "an insult to every faithful wife and to womanhood itself."

"The father at the time of the birth of the child," says the governor, "had and now has a lawful wife living. He and his paramour with brazen impudence and utter disregard of the rights of the lawful wife and the rules of morality, unite in a petition to the legislature to legitimize the issue of their lawless love. If this bill should be approved a legal status would be given to a semi-polygamous relation and concubinage would become an honorable estate."

MACHEN'S PUNISHMENT

Former Postoffice Official Finds Transgressor's Way Hard.

Washington, May 24.—August W. Machen, the former general superintendent of the free delivery service of the postoffice department, was taken back to the Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary last night after being sentenced to another term of two years following his plea of guilty under his joint indictment with W. G. Crawford of this city, and George E. Lorenz of Toledo, Ohio, for conspiracy to defraud the government. Machen will not be prosecuted on any of the remaining eleven indictments. Including his present two years' term and his last sentence, and making allowances for commutation for good behavior, he has two years and eight months yet to serve in the penitentiary in punishment for the postal irregularities which brought about his removal as a public official and conviction in the criminal court here. Following the imposition of his sentence the empanelling of a jury for the trial of Crawford was begun.

An Uneventful Convention.

Columbus, Ohio, May 24.—Seldom in the history of Ohio Republicanism has there been a quieter campaign than that which culminated in the state convention today. The uncontested renomination of candidates for all offices save lieutenant governor has been assured for several weeks, and as a result there is little popular interest in the proceedings of the convention. Secretary of War Taft, who is temporary chairman of the convention, did not arrive until this morning.

Chili Growing Ambitious.

Santiago, Chili, May 24.—The government has decided to issue bonds to the amount of 100,000,000 pesos and bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent to build a system of railroads throughout the whole country.

Drowned Self and Three Children.

Sulphur Springs, Tex., May 24.—Mrs. Tip Sanders drowned herself and three children in a creek near her home two miles south of town. The tragedy, it is said, was the result of domestic troubles.

Vladivostok Isolated.

Tokio, May 24.—The railway to Vladivostok has been severed, as the result of which the fortress is isolated.

Difficulties of Colonial Administration

By POULTNEY BIGELOW,
Author and Traveler

THE colonial problem is a great one, and that which the United States has to face is one of the GREATEST and one which AS YET has not been solved. I went out on my journey to observe at first hand the colonial systems of the various leading nations of the globe in a blind search for the truth, and I have returned with many impressions as to our own system: not at all in harmony with the POPULAR idea of patriotism. The fundamental error of our country in dealing with the island colonies is that it fails to adapt itself to the conditions of the people AS WE FIND THEM and that the colonial administrators are too hemmed in with restrictions to be effective. The men who take positions in the colonial field must be MAKERS OF LAW even more than interpreters of the same. They are dealing with a people who do not understand our customs and laws, and they make the mistake of attempting to make these primitive people measure up to our standards.

The colonial official must have plain common sense and a clear knowledge of our own law, but with the open mind and power TO TRANSFORM HIMSELF into the mental state of the man whose sole dress and possession are a string of beads.

It is a fundamental proposition of our government that all men are created equal and under the constitution MUST BE TREATED AS EQUAL. The fact is that the natives of the Philippine Islands are not equal to our people, and as they cannot be treated in any other way under the constitution our government fails.

Further, every one of our officials in foreign service is hedged about with all sorts of IRONCLAD RESTRICTIONS when he should be allowed the greatest freedom of action to meet all sorts of emergencies which are constantly arising.

TO GO OUT AND RULE COLONIES A MAN MUST BE POSSESSED OF QUALITIES WHICH HE DOES NOT GET AT HOME.

President Thurman has called a special meeting of the Sunday League to be held at the Palace Hotel, Cincinnati, Friday evening. All members are requested to attend, as business of importance will be transacted.

Greensburg News: Manager Spinney playfully remarked to Braden and Waybright the other evening that if the Greensburg team would win the series from Rushville and Connersville, they could have the tree on top of the court house. "Yes," and you will have to do the climbing for it too, replied Donnell, for we will win sure."

The Connersville Examiner says that the manager of the Frankfort team has refused to answer either of the three letters Manager LaRue, of the Connersville club, has addressed to him. The Examiner adds: "What's the matter with Frankfort? They claim the championship of the State, but so far have refused to meet Connersville. No team has a right to claim the championship of Indiana without contesting with Connersville."

Now that's just it. Connersville, too, claims the championship of the State and yet she refuses to meet Rushville.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

The county convention will be held in the Main Street Christian church on Saturday May 27th, at Rushville. A splendid program has been prepared. Mrs. D. W. Thomas, of Elkhart, will speak both in the morning and the afternoon. Several pastors in the county will take part; many of the workers of the county will also take part; interesting conferences will be held.

Reports from each township will be read by the presidents. A map of the county will show the standing of each school. Has your school reported yet? Good music is assured. It will pay you to spend one day in the interest of the Sunday school work of our county. Be sure to bring a note book and pencil with you so you will be able to make a good report to your school.

We are anxious that the Sunday schools make a good showing this year.

Rush county is in the front rank in many things and it should be in Sunday school work. You can help to place it in the front rank by sending in a report and by bringing an offering to the convention. We want to go to the State convention with every single school in the county reported, and our State pledge paid in full. Come on May 27th and bring some one with you.

A large crowd had assembled at the Christian church, Milroy, last Sunday afternoon when the hour arrived for the convention. The township president, Mrs. Jennie Powers, presided. She had prepared an excellent program, and a very interesting and profitable meeting was held. Prof. Shuck had charge of the music which was very good. Solos were rendered by Misses Edith Allison and Claude Wilson. The subjects presented were "The Power of the Sunday School to Help the Community," by Miss Nora Rardin; "Different Aspects of the Teacher's Work," by Miss Isabel Frazier and Mr. F. C. Green. "The Use of the Blackboard," by Mrs. Grindle. These subjects together with those of the round table on "School Management," and the open conference on "What the Sunday School Means to Me," furnished abundant material for discussions, and quite a number of the audience gave their ideas and experiences. This meeting was one of the best we have attended and speaks well for the workers of Anderson township. Mr. Bosley, the secretary, is trying to get a full and complete report of each school in the township and we hope he will succeed.

Mrs. Powers deserves the hearty support of every Sunday school worker in the township.

Source of Sensational Rumor.

Paris, May 24.—Nothing is known here of the report that Vice Admiral Rojstvensky is dead except a brief extra call from a London paper to which no importance is attached, owing to the complete absence of knowledge of the whereabouts of the Russian fleet. The officials of the Russian embassy here discredit the rumor as circulated in the interest of the Japanese.

Indictments Against Thugs.

Chicago, May 24.—The grand jury has indicted twelve men in connection with the death of Charles Carlstrom, the member of the carriage makers' union, who died as the result of the beating he received at the hands of thugs, hired by the officials of the union, according to their own story. The indictments charge manslaughter and conspiracy to commit great bodily injury.

WEAVER MEANS IT

BLOW AT THE MACHINE

By the Removal of Two of the Heads of City Departments Weaver Shows Line of Battle.

Powerful and Corrupt City Organization Will Be Fought on Its Own Field.

Philadelphia, May 24.—In his effort to defeat the consummation of the plan to lease the city gas works to the United Gas Improvement company for seventy-five years for $25,000,000, Mayor Weaver has dismissed from office two principal members of his cabinet and thereby delivered a staggering blow to the dominant political organization of this city, which has caused probably the greatest sensation in the history of Philadelphia municipal affairs. While the citizens were expecting some sort of a move on the part of the mayor, they were not prepared for the immediate removal from office of David J. Smyth, the director of the department of public safety, and Peter E. Costello, the director of the department of public works. The mayor has announced that he is in the fight to the bitter end, which means that a great political battle is now on and will be carried to the polls next November. In his fight against the gas lease and the Republican organization, the mayor has called in as counsel Elihu Root of New York and ex-Judge James Gay Gordon of this city. Judge Gordon is a Democrat. The mayor's stated purpose in going outside the city for his principal counsel is that he wants a man who is not identified with any faction in the struggle now on.

Simultaneous with the dismissal of the two directors, Frederick J. Shoyer, director of the department of supplies, by direction of the mayor, suspended pending an investigation, Arthur B. H. Morrow, the assistant director of the department.

The removal of Directors Smyth and Costello did not come until after the mayor had asked them to resign immediately. In reply each sent a letter to the mayor offering his resignation to take effect when his successor "shall be qualified." The mayor answered them by demanding their immediate resignation. The answers the directors returned were to the effect that they had tendered their resignations "in the usual form and in accordance with the provisions of the city charter," and that they would stand by them as tendered. Mr. Weaver then ended the correspondence by sending to each a letter immediately removing them from their positions.

After the removals had been announced the mayor made public names of the men he had selected for the places. They are Colonel Sheldon Potter to fill the office of director of public safety and interim, and A. Lincoln Ackler to be director of the department of public works ad interim.

The fight over the form of resignation was an important one, in that the new directors can only be qualified by the confirmation of councils, which is controlled by the organization. The department of public safety has charge of the police and fire bureaus, electrical bureau, prisons, building inspectors, boiler inspectors, city property and inspectors of fire-escapes. The bureaus of gas, highways, lighting, surveys, street cleaning, water and city ice boats, are under the supervision of the department of public works. Each director receives $10,000 a year and together they have control of 10,000 officeholders.

It is not likely that city councils will confirm the men appointed by the mayor, but they will hold the office ad interim. Neither Mayor Weaver nor the removed men would make a statement as to the specific reason for the changes beyond the general statement that the proposed lease of the gas works was the cause of it. The organization to a man was in favor of the lease, while the mayor was unalterably opposed to it. He was utterly ignored in the transaction and he has been urged by the newspapers and reform organizations to veto the ordinance passed by councils last Thursday. This he has announced he would do.

In the meantime he brought every influence to bear on councilmen to sustain him in his veto. In this he had little success. The two directors refused to use their influence to help him, and this led the mayor to ask the directors for their resignations.

The action of the mayor is the all-engrossing topic of conversation in the city. It is safe to say that no such political sensation has been sprung in the last twenty-five years. Now that the mayor has declared war on the Republican organization leaders who placed him in office, it is expected that a bitter fight will be waged during the remaining two years of his term. Including policemen and firemen there are upward of 20,000 officeholders in Philadelphia, and practically all of them are at the mercy of the mayor. The "organization" leaders, headed by State Insurance Commissioner Durham, expect that no mercy will be shown and that every supporter of the "organization" will be removed from office.

E. B. Poundstone has been offered the management of a carriage factory in one of the prosperous cities of this State. Mr. Poundstone has not decided whether to accept as he really doesn't desire to leave Rushville.

A good joke on Will Bowen runs something as follows: He purchased a fine new Oldsmobile from a party in Connersville. The machine was brought to this city safely, and taken to the Cook & Co's shop. Mr. Bowen started out with it to take his initiatory ride. Whether or not it were all a fairy dream and the machine a merry-go-round, we are not prepared to say. At any rate in starting he accidentally made a curve near a maple tree, and came to his senses, after an indefinite time, whirling at a fine speed at about the same radius from the tree.

A Thrilling Spectacle.

The top section of the Cresta run, at St. Moritz, Switzerland, known as the "Church Leap," is something steeper than the roof of a house, and to see one of the masters of tobogganing negotiating it is, as the Bystander observes, a vision for the gods. But the most exciting place, without doubt, is at the finish. After a longish strip of straight and a sudden dip the course rushes up a steep hill and at the summit loses itself in soft snow on the level. So terrific is the speed of the tobogganer at this point that, although he brakes hard up the hill, he cannot prevent his machine from leaping skyward at the top. To see rider after rider sweep up that slope and fly into the air, landing twenty, thirty or forty feet off in a shower of snow, is to experience an indescribable thrill.

Don't think that because you never was lucky that you haven't got the key to the Money Box. There is only one key that will unlock it so bring yours in and try them. MULNO & GUFFIN.

How the African Eats.

At eating, the native African negro having always first washed his hands and rinsed his mouth, sits upon the ground, holds the larger pieces between his teeth while he cuts off a bite with his knife, but does not use both hands to hold food except in gnawing bones. With the usual dishes he lays his right arm over his knees and, reaching into the pot, molds the thick mess into lumps about the size of a walnut, which he throws into his mouth with a jerk without scattering any of the food. To take out vegetables or soup he presses a hollow into the lump and dips with it. Politeness is shown to the host or housewife after eating by smacking loudly enough to be heard.

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. Ralph Payne has invited a number of young people to spend this evening at her home with Miss Anna Jordan, who has been her guest during the past winter. Miss Jordan will return to her home in Petoskey in a short time.

The annual Junior-Senior reception occurred last night at the home of Miss Alice Winship, 224 West Fifth street. The occasion was one of the most delightful of its kind in the history of the school. Miss Winship's beautiful home was tastefully decorated, the hall in Yale blue and white, the parlor in green and white, the temporary colors of the Juniors, and the dining room in red and green. Palms and ferns, smilax syringas and cut flowers were used to make the rooms very attractive. The table in the dining room was arranged with smilax ropes, festooned from the chandelier, and was lighted by candles from four silver candelabras. Music was furnished during the evening by Willard Kincaid, and Miss Ida Mariani. Spurrer gave a number of pretty vocal selections. The company consisted of the Seniors, faculty and Juniors of the high school.

The gentlemen members of the J. J. club were responsible for a delightful evening last night which was enjoyed by all the club. The gentlemen invited their ladies to be at the I. & C. station in time for the six o'clock car, but declined to give any further preliminary explanations of the affair. The men were in high glee while on their way down to the car barns to register the fares before the ladies should board the car, when they accidentally met one of the I. & C. electricians, who knowing their purpose, rightly judged that disappointment would be more welcome than after they had reached their destination, and therefore kindly told them that the ladies had already arrived at the barns and intended boarding the car at that place. Dismay is no name for their mood then. But the next best thing must be done, which proved thoroughly capable of serving the purpose. They returned to the station and succeeded in making arrangements to prevent the registration of the fares until they chose to have it known. The party was taken to Morristown, where a private residence had been rented for the evening. Here an elegant supper was enjoyed, followed by a pleasant social time. The party returned home on a late car, and on the home-coming trip no one was especially concerned about the registration of fares.

OUTBREAK OF HYDROPHOBIA

Chalmers, Ind., May 24.—There is an outbreak of rabies among domestic animals in this vicinity, the original cause being unknown. T. J. Hoshaw, a farmer, and John Cleaver, a laborer in his employ, while trying to control a mule afflicted with hydrophobia, were both bitten, the animal afterward dying of the disease. Both men have gone to Chicago to take the Pasteur treatment. A number of animals, principally horses, are afflicted with the disease.

BY THE WAYSIDE

Matches, the heads of which fly off when being struck, are really dangerous, as is evidenced by the following "grapevine" from Galesburg, Ill.: A woman attempted to pick her teeth with a match, when the head exploded, blowing a piece of gold filling from one of her teeth across the table, striking her husband's cheek, cutting a deep gash in it, while the fragment struck a glass berry dish and broke it.

WALTERS IS FINED IN CIRCUIT COURT

In the case of the State of Indiana vs. Ed. Walters for permitting minors to loiter in his saloon, tried Tuesday in the circuit court, the jury shortly after eleven o'clock Tuesday night returned a verdict finding Walters guilty and fining him $15. The jury retired shortly before two o'clock in the afternoon and was out about eight and one-half hours. Some of the members, it is said, held out for a jail sentence. The verdict was a compromise. The jury consisted of the following named men: Peter Johnson, Wm. Leisure, Wesley Miller, Chas. Kenner, John T. Boles, Wm. B. Crane, N. W. Brown, Ed. J. Busher, Bruce Matlock, A. N. Williams, W. M. Alexander and Dan Kinney.

HARD ON QUAIL

Unusually Wet Weather Has Killed Many Young Birds in This Locality.

The hard rains of the first part of May have undoubtedly been destructive to all the ground nesting birds, most important of which, to the sportsman at least, is quail. Bob White likes to make his home in cover, that he finds most readily in the low grounds near streams, and since the creek valleys have been heavily flooded it would seem impossible that the birds have escaped. A local hunter said yesterday: "I feel certain that the quail must have suffered. I don't know how far along they were in their nesting, but I suspect some eggs had been laid. But even if the nests had only been made, the destruction of these would be a serious drawback. Fear that the wet season is going to be bad for this season's brood."

Practical Recipes

For the Housewife

How to Fold Napkins.

To fold a dinner napkin iron it all over on the right side, having first pressed the initial or monogram over a padded surface. Fold in halves with the wrong side out; now turn one hem back to the middle fold, which brings the right side to view; then turn the linen over and bring the other hem to the fold. You now have on one long side two folds and on the other edge one fold and two hems. Fold again in the middle, then turn one end under and the other over on top, and the napkin will lie flat, with all hems and folds even. If a large napkin is folded in the common way the thickness of the linen at the folds will draw the edges back and make them uneven. Illustrate with a square of paper, if necessary, to teach the trick of folding the linen to secure smoothness.

How to Make Dyspeptic's Pudding.

Boil a cupful of rice until it is soft; then take two eggs, a cupful of sugar and one of milk, stir together and add to the rice. Pare six cooking apples, slice and place in bottom of pudding dish and pour the rice custard over them. Bake in a moderate oven long enough to cook the apples. To be eaten warm either with or without cream.

How to Dry the Umbrella.

To preserve an umbrella so that it will last long enough and not look shabby it should be carefully dried each time it is carried in the rain. To do this it should never be stood on the point, thus permitting the water to trickle down, spoiling the silk and making the wires rusty. Neither should an umbrella be opened to dry, for in this way the silk is stretched, and later it becomes baggy, and it is impossible to furl it smoothly. The correct way to dry an umbrella is to shake it well to get as much water out as possible and then stand it on its handle to drain.
